A few Important Reminders

- Please do not touch the quilts with fingers or other objects. If you would like to see the backs of quilts, there are white-gloved volunteers circulating throughout the rows of quilts to assist you.
- DO NOT bring food or drink into the quilt display area. Water is allowed in a closed container.
- Children must be supervised by an adult at all times.
- Ask vendors' permission before taking photos in their booths.
- Photography is allowed among the quilt displays. Please be considerate of others waiting to look at the quilts.

Featured Artist: Anne Dobratz Gillihan

I made my first quilt in 1973, a baby quilt. The next quilt I finished was in 1991 when the baby graduated from high school, and I haven't stopped quilting since. I lived in Seattle then and joined the Quilters Anonymous (QA) quilt guild. Guilds are great places to meet other like-minded people and to take classes from a huge variety of teachers, which I did. I joined CCQ when I moved to Vancouver in 2017. My favorite quilting methods and techniques are hand applique, hand quilting, miniatures, feathered stars, and polka dots. If I had to describe my quilting style in just a few words, it would be "I don't do easy".

I love the creative process of making quilts and if I use a pattern, I will always add my own little twist to it. I also love all the friends I have made through quilting, they are the best part!

I have entered quilts into national competitions and juried shows, mostly at the urging of friends. I even won awards, including a third place at Houston. And a photo of one of my quilts is in the Library of Congress. Scan QR code below.

Judges for the Show

Kathy Kerler began quilting in 1988 and judging in 2002. She is certified through the National Association of Certified Quilt Judges and as a Qualified Instructor teaches the association's two-day Introduction to Judging Seminar. She is a national award winning fiber artist who has completed rigorous courses in design and embroidery through the City and Guilds Institute of London, England and the Lesage School of Needlework in Paris, France. In 2009 she completed a public commission for Clackamas County for Oregon's sesquicentennial. In 2011, Kathie had a solo exhibition at the Rocky Mountain Quilt Museum in Golden, Colorado. She has also been a featured artist for The Oregon Garden, as well as two quilt guilds. Kathy also worked as a contributing editor to American Quilter magazine and wrote over 115 articles and patterns. Currently, she freelances.

Val Pellens has been quilting since 2000 and enjoys all genres including traditional, art and the modern movement. She owned a successful longarm quilting business for 5 years, but retired to pursue her own goals in quilting. Val has been an active member of Clark County Quilters since 2005, including 2 years as President. Val has won numerous awards for her work. She successfully completed the West Coast Judging Academy and continuing education with certified judges. She is looking forward to opportunities of judging at a variety of venues and encouraging others to join in her passion for quilts.

Elizabeth Spannring entered her first international competition in 2000 and has won numerous awards at major international, regional and local shows across the U.S. Having attended the Northern California Quilt Council Judges Training in 2002, she pursued her interest in judging and in 2006 completed the NQA Certified Quilt Judge Program. In 2011, she became a certified quilt judge with the Canadian Quilters Association/ACC. Elizabeth strives to provide concise and constructive feedback to the quiltmaker, recognizing the creativity and expertise of each individual quilter. She is currently an instructor and program administrator of the Quilt Judge Certification Program with the Canadian Quilters' Association/ACC.
